Optimal recovery of the solution of the second kind Fredgolm equation

O. Agareva

The problem of optimal recovery of the solution of the Fredgolm integral equation of the second kind with difference kernel is considered. We assume that the first N Fourier coefficients of the function from the right side of the equation are known with some error. We find the error of optimal recovery and a best method of recovery.

MATI – Russian State Technology University